CHAN Ping, a servant [unemployed] was brought before Mr Wodehouse in the Police Court to-day, charged with entering the China Mail Office last night and stealing two jackets belonging to Chinese employees. He admitted the charge and was sentenced to four months' hard labour.

WE have received from Messrs Kelly and Walsh the Nautical Pocket Manual for 1891, which contains information regarding Shanghai tide tables, Customs signals, Woosung Bar signals, lights on the coast of China, buoys, beacons &c., and a mass of other details of great value to mariners in Far Eastern waters.

THE Baldwin Brothers, the renowned aeronauts, arrived to-day by the American mail, after a very successful tour in Japan, and intend to give two or three performances at the Happy Valley. The feats which they perform are of the most daring character, putting in the shade anything we have hitherto seen in that line. Among the items in the programme is a leap from a tower 80 or 100 feet high, without the aid of a parachute or any support whatever.

THE first annual meeting of an institution which seems to be doing a considerable amount of good in the Colony was held in the City Hall yesterday. The institution is called the Hongkong Benevolent Society. It was formed in September last year for the purpose of giving assistance, where needful, in cases of sickness and distress, among residents who do not belong to the Chinese or Portuguese communities. The Society has given relief in several instances by contributing towards the expense of treatment in Hospital, by paying rent or schooling, by helping poor residents to return to England, and by enabling some who were in distress to tide over their difficulties. The President of the Society is Mrs W. H. Forbes, and she is assisted by Mrs Harman (Vice President), Mrs Mackintosh (Hon. Treasurer), Mrs Noble (Hon. Secretary) and a committee, while most of the ladies in the Colony co-operate in the good work. At the meeting held yesterday, Mr Thomas Jackson, who presided, explained the scope of the Society's work and its manner of operation. Hon. J. J. Keswick and Mr Granville Sharp both spoke in terms of praise of the useful work that was being done and of the large sphere there was for the labours of the Society. On the motion of Mrs Forbes, seconded by Mrs Hirst, the report and accounts for the past year were adopted, and the committee were re-elected by ballot. Votes of thanks were passed to the committee and the Chairman, and the proceedings terminated.

SIGNOR Majeroni made his third appearance before a Hongkong audience at the Theatre Royal last night, when he took the leading part in the late Dion Boucicault's well-known drama, 'The Corsican Brothers.' A thing so weird and gloomy, sandwiched between two performances of a gay and giddy pantomime, strikes one as being slightly incongruous and unattractive. Besides, this is a season when one has no special desire to have one's young blood frozen by witnessing ghastly duels and deeds of vengeance. However, there was a good audience, a fact which, taking one consideration with another, simply meant that Signor Majeroni had shown himself on his two previous appearances to be an actor of rare powers and that people wanted to see him again. The double role of the Del Franchi brothers is not one which suits Signor Majeroni in all respects. It is not one in which he is seen at his best, but it affords opportunities for showing dramatic talent of a very high order, and it was when these opportunities occurred that Signor Majeroni took full possession of his audience. The deathlike silence in every part of the house throughout the whole of the trying third act spoke more eloquently of the powerful impression made by the actor than did even the enthusiastic burst of applause at the fall of the curtain. The support given by Mr Stanley's Company could hardly be expected to be adequate in all respects, the work not being quite in their line, but it served to carry the piece along smoothly enough. Mr Fletcher, as Chateau Reynaud, acquitted himself with credit, and Mr Pyne gave a satisfactory account of the part of Alfred de Meynard. Miss D. Childs, as Madame Dei Franchi, and Miss F. Stanley, as Madame Lesparre, were somewhat out of their element, but accomplished fairly well the little they had to do. To-night the Pantomime will be performed.

THE Agent of the M. M. Co. informs us that the s. s. Saghalien, with Mails &c., left Saigon for this port to-day (Tuesday), at 2 a.m.

THE Legislative Council meets on Monday, 5th January, 1891, at 3 p.m. The following are the Orders of the Day :—

1. Financial Minutes.
2. Committee on the Bill entitled An Ordinance for the Naturalization of Lai Siu Tong.
3. Committee on the Bill entitled An Ordinance for the Naturalization of Choi Wai otherwise Choi Tsun.
4. Committee on the Bill entitled The Gambling Ordinance, 1890.
5. Committee on the Bill entitled An Ordinance to amend the Law relating to Bankruptcy.

DIGESTION is often rather sluggish at this season of the year. We are glad, however, to find that one morning contemporary has been able, in the course of a fortnight, to digest and assimilate the ideas set forth with regard to the Happy Valley improvements in a letter signed 'Another Jockey,' which appeared in our issue of the 12th inst. Our correspondent then wrote:—

'The Race Course is all right as it is; it is very little time since it was raised, and then the riding community were deprived of the use of the course for a long time—(nearly a year). If it is touched again the result will probably be the same, and as it is the only place in the Colony that is fit for riding on, it will be a great privation if it is again shut up for repairs.'

The Hon. C. P. Chater is reported to have said in Council that the first heavy rain would swamp the course. At the present moment the riding community wish it would come and do so, as it is badly in want of water. If however there really is danger, could not the present canal be cleared out a bit to prevent any damage, though it seems strange that when the Course is some 3 feet lower at the Bowrington End, heavy rain-storms did not always damage the Course. We cannot reasonably expect a deluge like the one of May 1889; and if we are unfortunate enough to be visited by another such, the Race Course will not be the only place to suffer.

'If the danger hinted at is brought about in any way by the filling up of the Pond, it would be interesting to know, if this result was clearly understood who the work was decided on?'

Yesterday the Daily Pâs managed to evolve from its inner consciousness the following :—

'If this expenditure on drainage is necessary, is it because the pond has been filled in? If so we have a fine illustration of how things are worked by the Government. In the first place a vote is asked for to fill in the pond, a quite unnecessary work in itself. Nothing is said at the time as to its necessitating an alteration of the drainage, but when the vote has been secured and the work has been almost completed, further large funds are demanded for drainage purposes.

But even with the pond filled in we think the drainage of the ground that he made efficient without going to the expense of diverting the canal and the stream which runs along one side of the valley. The Hon. C. P. Chater, in the discussion in Finance Committee, remark that at present the Jockey Club had to take a great deal of trouble to prevent débris being washed on to the course. It is however, only in exceptionally heavy rainstorms such as that of May, 1889, that inconvenience is experienced from this cause, and probably no one now living will see such a storm as that again. The risk of débris being washed on to the course is so remote, the inconvenience when it does occur so comparatively trifling, that it cannot be looked upon as in any degree justifying the expenditure it is proposed to incur.

THE Penang Gazette understands that there is a prospect of the North German Lloyd's Company's steamers calling there daily.

THE Foochow native paper states that the tea trade in Formosa this year, has been very brisk, and that the Douglas Company had three steamers carrying the tea.

THE Nippon Yusen Kaisha are extending the sphere of their operations and have arranged to run the Tsuruga Maru between Japan and Manila viâ Amoy.

CAPTAIN Edwardes, of the Northamptonshire Regiment, while out riding in Singapore, was thrown from his horse and was picked up on the road side in an insensible condition. It was found that his skull had been severely injured. He was not out of danger when the last mail left.

OF late the abduction of children seems to have been of frequent occurrence in Yokohama. The cause is attributed to many of famine-stricken people coming down from the north to the city. There must be evil-disposed ones among them who take the opportunity to steal children and take them in the course of their wanderings. It will be well for the city authorities to keep a sharp watch on them.

BETWEEN Hankow and Wuchang the river is often very stormy and boisterous. When ever any heavy gale is sweeping over the water this crossing becomes unnavigable, sometimes for days. Very frequently boats have been upset through the swift running of currents in mid-stream. It is now reported that H.E. Chang Chih-tung, Governor-General of Liang Hu, proposes to purchase steamboats to do the ferrying, and has instructed certain deputies to furnish him with maps and plans of steam ferry-boats.

WE (N.-C. Daily News) hear from Peking that Mr William Nelthorpe Beauclerk, M.A. and LL.D. of Trinity College, Cambridge, has been appointed Secretary of the British Legation at Peking, where he is expected to arrive in the spring. Mr Beauclerk was nominated an attaché in October, 1873, and has since served at Copenhagen, Athens, Berne, St. Petersburg, Rome, Washington and Berlin, where, as also at Berne, he has acted as chargé d'affaires. He is a J. P. and Deputy Lieutenant for the county of Lincoln.

THOUGH the Kaiping Mines are close to Tientsin and the price for inferior kinds of coal is very low, yet natives seldom employ it as fuel, but continue to use wood, i.e., branches and dead leaves. Since the inundation set in wood has so risen in price that people have begun to take coal. They grind the coal to powder and make cakes of it, which suit the brick or mud stoves very well. Besides the Kaiping coal there are also in the market coals from Linsi, a shaft newly opened some distance from Kaiping.—Hupao.

THOUGH the Imperial Palace Gardens are getting to be very cold, His Imperial Chinese Majesty still stays in them to transact the affairs of state and look over memorials and official documents till night is far advanced. Lately he was slightly indisposed, and on the 28th of the 10th moon the Imperial doctor on duty was commanded to enter and give attendance.—Sun Pao.

THE Foochow Echo says :—It is rumoured that a few wealthy natives intend to purchase machinery for preparing tea, and set up an establishment for that purpose in Kin-ning-foo. No charges, we understand, will be made to owners of tea for the first year, and thereafter the charge will be far less than the cost of manual labour. The idea is undoubtedly an excellent one, as many tea growers cannot purchase such expensive machinery, and no doubt will be only too glad to avail of an opportunity to have their teas manufactured in a better way than at present; especially if the cost would be, as is said, far less than hand labour. We sincerely hope that the promoters will carry the above plan through, when, we doubt not, many others will follow suit.

WE find the following in an American journal with 'The Romance of an Oriental Student and a susceptible Young Woman' as a sub-heading :—'The announcement that Miss Mary Elkinton of this city is to become the bride of a native of Japan at an early date and return with him to the Orient will be, doubtless, the cause of more than a ripple of interest in social circles. Miss Elkinton is a member of one of the oldest and most highly esteemed Philadelphia families. She is a daughter of Joseph S. Elkinton, a prominent member of the Society of Friends. The young Japanese who won her heart and the pledge of her hand is a man high in rank. His family are among the most distinguished and wealthiest in Japan, and he occupies a leading position in the affairs of the Government. For six years he has been travelling through America and Europe, studying to fit himself to occupy an important Government position, and he will return next month with his bride to fill the part which has been assigned to him. A similarity of tastes drew the young pair together, and the admiration Miss Elkinton first cherished for his accomplishments soon developed into a deeper feeling, and when the young man sailed for Europe shortly afterward it is understood that she had pledged him her love. He is now back to claim her as the bride of Inazo Mitobe of Sapporo, in Japan. In person and appearance Inazo reveals all the characteristics of a student. He is of medium stature, slight in figure, with sharply defined, delicate features and a pensive expression. In his manner, conversation and general address he appears as a man of delicate sensibilities, refined tastes and cultivated intellect. Inazo has already adopted the faith of the Friends and the marriage will be solemnized according to their usages.

THE Commercial aspect of representative Government, says the Kobe Herald, appears to have been very readily grasped by the Japanese gentlemen who are privileged to write M. P. after their names. In most countries the possession of a seat in Parliament entails no little expense on the candidate—in some, notably in France, each vote has to be bought at a certain tariff and he is generally successful who has the longest purse. But in Japan there would seem to be very material advantages connected with a seat in Parliament—beyond the actual salary which is paid to representatives of the people. Every member of the Lower House, we hear, is entitled to procure admission for one friend daily, which means that three hundred visitors may be admitted by members alone. Admission is by ticket and without it one cannot even enter the enclosure in which the House stands. As Parliament is the newest thing in Japan, the people are consumed with curiosity about it. Tickets therefore are at a premium—in fact they are more valuable than they would be if the House of Commons were a theatre. It occurred to the astute Japanese legislator that not only was his position one of high honour, but that he might materially add to the income of eight hundred yen per annum, which a grateful country gives him for his services, if, instead of giving his daily ticket away, he should exchange it for current coin of the realm. This does not sound very dignified, but it is essentially business-like. After this we shall probably hear that some members have contracted with a waste paper dealer to purchase their share of the bluebooks which we presume will be issued.

RUSSIA IN ASIA.—The Nippon jiu discusses in recent issues the position of Russia in Asia, especially in her relation to Japan. To some of the views expressed by our contemporary, we must be allowed to take exception, but we confess, at the same time, that the articles before us show more than ordinary research and command of facts. The Tokyo periodical thinks that many of its countrymen over-rate the effective strength of Russia as an Asiatic Power. To disprove this erroneous notion is the task which the Nippon sets itself in the present essay. There are, says our contemporary, three things which, of all others, excite feelings of alarm and terror in the minds of the Japanese, namely the mighty and well-disciplined army of the Czar, the construction of the Siberian railway, and the colonization of Saghalien. As to the fighting capacity of Russia in Asia, Japan need not, we are told, be afraid of the great Northern Power, because, in addition to Russia's financial embarrassment, her position in Europe and the south and west of Asia is such that she could not spare troops to operate actively against any country in the Far East. The Nippon jiu writes at great length, dating these points with copious references to statistics and historical facts, we cannot follow it into such minutiæ. As to the Siberian railway, our contemporary observes that its completion will go a long way towards developing the natural resources of the regions through which it passes, and that it will furnish new facilities for Japanese and Chinese produce. In this respect, the line deserves the closest attention of the Japanese nation. But its military value is comparatively small when we remember that the gauge is narrow and the line single; that many rivers and passages interrupt the continuity of the line, and that these rivers are frozen during several months of the year. Thus there is no serious apprehensions, from a military point of view, about the consequences of the completion of the road, would be, we hold, to entirely misunderstand its true functions. Lastly, as to the colonization of Saghalien, our contemporary attaches little weight to it. Quite an excitement seems to have been caused in certain quarters by a report of the establishment of convictions on that island in the course of the present year. Saghalien is extremely poor in soil and has no natural products of any coal of doubtful character. Nor does it contain any harbour that can be used as a naval station. The colonization of such an island need not, says the Nippon-jiu, attract the attention of the Japanese in any extraordinary manner. Our contemporary ends its essay by a strong appeal to the nation to cast aside the absurd notions at present entertained as to the power of Russia in Asia.—Japan Mail.

IN YUNNAN province heavy rain falling constantly has destroyed the produce of hundreds of acres of fields and inundated many villages. The local officials are doing their best to succour the starving and homeless people. H.E. Tan, Governor of the province, has sent several thousand taels to the famine districts, and the calamity will be reported to the Throne.

A PLACARD of a most inciting character was posted all over the city on Tuesday last, says the Foochow Echo, against Christianity and the wording was of the lowest character. We understand the Consuls in a body represented the matter to the Viceroy in person. No doubt a lot of promises will be made, but we fear nothing will be done. Such rascality will not only incite the people to do mischief, but it opens a door for the vagabonds that abound in this country, who will only be too glad to raise trouble, for the sake of plunder. Let us hope that the authorities will take the necessary steps, and have the authors severely punished, and prevent any repitition of the occurrence.

THE N.-C. Daily News says :—On Wednesday afternoon 24th inst. the tugs Fuhlee and Fairy succeeded in towing off the Forest King which had been ashore on the Middle ground below the Kintoan light-vessel. Both tugs were towing ahead, the Fuhlee being on the starboard quarter of the Fairy, and they had proceeded about three miles, when the Fuhlee crashed into the starboard side of the Fairy abaft of the engine-room, cutting through her guard, piercing the hull, and damaging her so badly that she sank in seven minutes in 21 feet of water at low tides. The Fuhlee had her stem broken and the plates on both sides of it stove in. The Fuhlee having rescued the crew of the Fairy returned to Shanghai for repairs. It is anticipated that the Fairy can be raised.

TELEGRAPHIC news received in Tokyo on the 18th instant announced that Mr Maurice William Guest de Bunsen has been appointed to the post of First Secretary of Her Britannic Majesty's Legation in Tokyo, vice the Honble. W. G. Napier, who has apparently been superseded. The Honble. Mr Napier's departure was somewhat sudden, and though the public understood at the time that circumstances had occurred which rendered his return to Japan improbable, some surprise will doubtless be caused by the intelligence that a successor has been so speedily appointed. Mr Napier's term of service in Japan had not expired, and in the ordinary course of events he would have been granted leave of absence if his visit to England had been connected with private affairs. The immediate nomination of a First Secretary to take his place would therefore indicate that the Foreign Office has acted in obedience to special considerations Mr de Bunsen has been thirteen years in the diplomatic service.—Japan Mail.

THE JUBILEE OF THE COLONY.

APPROVAL OF A PROGRAMME.

A public meeting was held at the City Hall this afternoon for the purpose of receiving the proposals of the Committee in reference to the celebration of the Jubilee of the Colony. There was but a large attendance.

Sir James Russell, Chief Justice, who presided, said—Gentlemen, this meeting has been convened for the purpose of receiving the proposals of the Committee in reference to the celebration of the Jubilee of this Colony. If you remember, when the first public meeting was held a large committee was nominated and powers were given to it to add to its number and powers to draw up and submit proposals to a further public meeting as to the manner in which the Jubilee should be celebrated. The large Committee, which had increased its size very much by adding new members, has had several meetings for the purpose of considering what they should recommend to you as a scheme for commemorating the Jubilee. Several schemes were submitted to the Committee, but no definite plan has been settled upon. The permanent memorial, what the nature of it is to be, has been postponed for further consideration until 3rd January, but it became necessary to draw up some programme for the temporary rejoicings, and a sub-committee was delegated at last meeting to draw up a scheme based upon a plan which the Hon. Mr Keswick had submitted to the Committee meeting. The sub-committee consisted of the Hon. J. J. Keswick, the Hon. C. P. Chater, Mr R. K. Leigh, Mr H. W. Dick, the Hon. Ho Kai, Lieut.-Colonel Jerrard, Lieut. Anson, R.N., and the Chairman (Sir James Russell) and Hon. Secretary (the Hon. H. E. Wodehouse, C.M.G.) as ex-officio members. This sub-committee had one or two meetings, and they have drawn up a certain scheme for three days' rejoicings, which I shall ask Mr Wodehouse now to submit to this meeting. It is for you to say whether you approve of that scheme or not.

Hon. H. E. Wodehouse then read the following proposed programme :—

Jan. 20—Public Ball at the City Hall. Subscription $5. Ladies to be invited by the Invitation Committee.

Jan. 21.—Meeting of the Executive and Legislative Councils, at 9.30 a.m. for the purpose of despatching a telegraphic message to the Queen and the Secretary of State.

9.45 a.m.—A special service in St. John's Cathedral; the dignitaries and ministers of denominations other than the Church of England to be invited to hold similar services at their several places of worship.

Twelve o'clock noon.—Salute of fifty guns from the men-of-war and the shore battery. The Volunteers to be also invited to salute.

Jan. 22.—Public holiday commencing at 11.30 a.m.

Review of the Naval and Land Forces in the Happy Valley at 3 p.m.; His Excellency the Governor attending in state.

Jan. 23.—Athletic Sports on the Race Course, to be under the immediate superintendence and organization of Mr R. K. Leigh, who has kindly undertaken this duty; the sports to be under the rules of the London Athletic Association, and the prizes to be obtained by subscriptions from the community, and if possible to consist of gold, silver and bronze medals to be struck for the occasion.

In the evening, dress rehearsal of the 'Gondoliers,' unless previously held on 22nd Jan. Soldiers, Sailors and members of the Police Force to be invited to the dress rehearsal.

Jan. 24—Pony Races under the auspices of the Jockey Club, and Polo Matches under the auspices of the Polo Club, to take place in the afternoon.

In the evening, performance of the 'Gondoliers'.

The three days, Jan. 22, 23 and 24, to be public holidays, commencing each day at 11.30 a.m.

It is estimated that to carry out the programme, including prizes for the Athletic Sports, expenses in connection with the Ball (a portion of which will be covered by the subscriptions paid for the Ball) and the Pony Races, a sum of five thousand dollars will be required, and subscriptions to raise this sum will be invited from the community.

His Excellency the Governor has expressed his concurrence in the foregoing programme and has been pleased to say that he will be happy to co-operate in every possible way.

His Excellency has also announced his intention of giving a Ball at Government House, the date of which it is impossible to fix at present.

Mr Wodehouse went on to say—That is the programme, Sir, which the sub-committee have drawn up. With regard to the Ball, I was requested to ascertain if Mr Stewart Lockhart would undertake the chief management and organisation, and he has kindly consented to do so, with the assistance of several gentlemen who, he hopes, will be able to join the various committees connected with its organisation.

The Chairman—Now, gentlemen, it is for this public meeting to say whether it approves of the scheme drawn up by the sub-committee.

A show of hands was then taken, when a large majority of those present voted in favour of the scheme, while none voted against it.

The scheme was therefore declared approved.

The Chairman—The sub-committee will carry out this scheme and proceed to ask you for subscriptions towards defraying expenses. That is all that is before the meeting. The Committee has no powers, unless to make suggestions, and this is one of them. The meeting now stands adjourned sine die.

The following is a complete list of the General Committee, including the additions made since last public meeting :—

Sir James Russell (Chairman), Hon. F. Fleming, C.M.G., Hon. S. Brown, Hon. W. M. Deane, Hon. Ho Kai, Hon. J. J. Keswick, Hon. N. G. Mitchell-Innes, Hon. P. Ryrie, Hon. T. H. Whitehead, Hon. E. J. THE BURNING OF THE SHANGHAI.

APPALLING LOSS OF LIFE.

The N.-C. Daily News, of Saturday last, says :—We issued the following as an Extra yesterday morning :—

'News was received last night by wire from Chinkiang that the China Navigation Co.'s steamer Shanghai has been totally destroyed by fire. She left this on Wednesday for Hankow.

Since then the Taiwo has arrived with the second officer, third engineer and 30 Chinese passengers of the Shanghai, and we are able to give particulars of one of the most appalling shipping catastrophes that have ever happened in Chinese waters.

The Shanghai left Shanghai on Wednesday at 8 a.m. and reached Chinkiang either late the same night or early on Thursday morning, the 25th. She left Chinkiang at 4 a.m. with over 400 Chinese and one foreign passenger, Mr Kniffler, on board. At about 7 a.m., when the steamer was six miles below Mud Fort, smoke was discovered coming out of the afterhold in which was stowed, among other cargo a lot of cotton. The second mate, Mr Nicholson, immediately got the fire pumps to work, and Captain Martin was informed of what had happened. Meanwhile the hose was played on the main hold hatch, but all of a sudden the hatches gave way, being burnt through, probably, and an immense volume of dense black smoke shot up out of the hatchway, which made it impossible for the second officer to remain there any longer. He then started to go forward, but found the Chinese a panic-stricken seething mass of humanity struggling vainly to get to a place of safety. He could not get through them, so crawled along outside the ship and so got to his destination. As soon as Captain Martin saw there was no means of getting the fire under, a fact that became apparent very shortly after the alarm was given, he headed the steamer for the bank of the river and ran her so violently ashore, that her bow was right up the bank. Under ordinary circumstances, this would have given greater facilities for escape, but the ship was in flames from stem to stern in less than fifteen minutes from the time of the alarm being given, and the Chinese were in such a confused mass in the alleyways that they could not get forward were drowned, while jumped overboard were burnt to death. The foreigners were able to get ashore, Captain Martin and one of the pilots being the last to leave the vessel. Mr Kniffler waded ashore, and when he landed, he was attacked by the villagers who attempted to strip him of his clothing. The Chinese passengers who succeeded in reaching the shore were similarly attacked and were stripped of their clothing. A Chinese mandarin gunboat and a steam launch which were near at hand, never made any attempt to save any with but their crews contented themselves with the picking up things that floated from the burning steamer.

The number of lives lost will never be accurately known, but of the number who were on board at Chinkiang only some sixty-five have been accounted for, but some of the passengers, who got clear of the vessel, hurried from the scene as quickly as possible by the villagers, apparently afraid of being robbed or ill-treated. A foreigner, however, counted seventy-five bank of the river, and dead bodies off it recover sixteen more. He saw a dozen burnt, so that the number of dead may, of course, be probably between two and three hundred.

The Taiwo is the first steamer to reach Shanghai since the disaster.

The Taiwo left Wuhu the same day, and arrived off the Shanghai in the same day, and anchored close at 2 quarter of an hour later. By this time the Shanghai was completely gutted. Proceeding she took on board some Passengers.

The Newchwang, bound up, arrived just after the Taiwo left for Shanghai, and anchored by the wreck.

It is a coincidence it may be mentioned that the steamer Bombay was burnt at Woosung on 25th December, 1880.

The Shanghai was an iron paddle steamer of 3,088 tons and 300 horse power. She was built in 1873, and had an iron main deck, while all the upper works and houses were built of wood.

SUPREME COURT.

IN ORIGINAL JURISDICTION.

(Before Sir James Russell, Chief Justice.)
Tuesday, Dec. 30.

KWOK LOK v. THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

This was an action for damages for the detention by the Government of the steamer Pasig for a survey. By consent of parties certain issues were tried Mr Robinson, instructed by Messrs Caldwell and Wilkinson, appeared for the plaintiff, and the Attorney General appeared in person. Judgment was given on the issues.

His Lordship said this matter came before the Court in the shape of a petition of right to claim for damages, by one Kwok Lok against the Attorney General for having unlawfully detained the steamer Pasig, under the Merchant Shipping Ordinance, 1879 on a charge of being unseaworthy. The ship was detained by order of the Governor on 27th November, 1889, for an investigation into her seaworthiness, and the plaintiff claimed that there was no ground for having her detained and said he suffered loss and damage in consequence. Certain questions of law were raised by the plaintiff in the belief that a settlement of them in his favour would put an end to the case and save a great deal of trouble in getting up certain evidence which it would be otherwise necessary to obtain. The issues raised were—1st, whether the judgment of the Court of Survey which sat on the Pasig by order of the Government was conclusive as against the defendant to determine the question as to the fitness of the steamer; 2nd, to determine the absence of any reasonable or probable cause for the detention, by reason of the condition of the steamer; 3rd, to determine the question of liability of the Governor for loss and damage by reason of the detention. His Lordship was of opinion that the question as to whether there was reasonable or probable cause for the detention of the steamer was one for a jury, and the judgment of the Court of Survey did not stop the defendant from having the matter tried before a jury. The Court of Survey found that there was no reasonable or probable cause for the detention, and there was a strong presumption that a jury would come to the same conclusion. However, it was certainly a matter for a jury, and on the issues before the Court at present his Lordship must find for the defendant.

Judgment was therefore given for the defendant, with costs.

TELEGRAMS BY THE AMERICAN MAIL.

DISASTERS TO SHIPPING ON THE BRITISH COAST.

London, November 21.—Heavy gales are prevailing in the south and west of England and many vessels are seeking shelter. The Danish schooner Regina has been sunk in collision with the steamer Primate. Five of the schooner's crew were drowned. The steamer put into Copenhagen.

The steamer Uppingham is ashore at Hartland. Twenty-one persons were rescued from the steamer. The first officer was lost. A boat containing five of the crew is missing.

The British steamer Calypso, from Mediterranean ports, foundered off Sandgate, after being in a collision. The crew of the Calypso has arrived at Folkestone. The collision occurred last night. The other vessel was a Spanish steamer. It is supposed she also foundered.

The recent heavy rains and overflow of the rivers have flooded long stretches of the Manchester ship canal, doing great damage. Forty-five hundred navvies are idle in consequence.

IMPORTANT STATEMENTS MADE BY LORD SALISBURY.

London, November 25.—In the House of Lords to-night Premier Salisbury, in an address, said he would not say that England's trade with Africa and the colonies would immediately compensate her for the loss caused by the new American tariff, but it would be a motive for preventing her territories in Africa from falling into the hands of nations exercising a prohibition of trade.

Replying to queries, he said he could not discuss the recent financial crisis, as the negotiations in progress were of a confidential character. Regarding the troubles in Tipperary, he said that the league combination there aimed to defraud, oppress and coerce honest traders. The task of restoring prosperity to Ireland would be hopeless unless such combinations were destroyed. The Government was firmly pursuing the object of increasing the number of persons interested in land in Ireland, thus creating a moral and political force which would frustrate the efforts of political agitations.

A NIHILISTIC ASSASSIN.

London, November 24.—Padlewski, the supposed assassin of General Silverskoff in Paris, has been traced to Ostend, whence he took the steamer for Dover on Thursday. British and French detectives are on his track.

Paris, November 24.—A meeting of anarchists was held here yesterday to discuss the arrests of nihilists recently made in this city. Padlewski, the Russian Pole suspected of the murder of General Silverskoff, was appointed honorary president. Violent speeches were made and a resolution was adopted declaring that in the event of failure to effect a social reform there be a revolution.

Berlin, THE TRIPLE ALLIANCE.

Eastern question 22.—A crisis in the triple alliance by its been sprung upon the King of Greece to a project of the Cretans openly and with risings in Epirus and Thessaly. Chancellor von Caprivi and Marshal Kalnoky sent a joint note to Athens warning the Government that in the event of measures being taken tending toward war with Turkey the Dreibund's squadron would blockade the coasts of Greece and leave the Hellenic army to take isolated action on land against the Turks. The decisive character of this note stopped a blaze of war which might have extended over Europe.

AN AFFLICTED EMPEROR.

London, November 24.—The Emperor of Austria is represented as deeply cast down by the probable fate of his relative, Archduke John, which is the third calamity during his reign in the Hapsburg family, his brother, Maximilian, having been shot in Mexico, and his son and heir, Rudolph, having committed suicide. The Emperor went to-day to pray on the spot where Prince Rudolph died.

DISASTROUS FLOODS.

Berlin, November 25.—Dispatches from Elberfeld say that the Wupper river has risen and five persons have been drowned. Great damage has been done in the vicinity of Barmen. At Bastock and other points the timber yards and many streets are submerged.

Carlsbad, November 25.—Yesterday's flood was caused by the bursting of a dam about Topl pond. A volume of water ten feet deep poured through the streets. The gas and water works were completely ruined. Several corpses were found in the country, but there was no loss of life in Carlsbad proper.

At Kahla ten houses were blown down and seventeen persons drowned. Similar disasters and floods are reported from elsewhere.

EMPEROR WILLIAM SPEAKS.

Berlin, November 25.—The Emperor William, in the course of a conversation after a parliamentary dinner given by Caprivi, condemned all dogmatic discussion and animadverted upon the futility of social democratic congresses. His Majesty made a number of pointed remarks respecting politicians who do nothing but criticise. He is assumed to have alluded to a prominent critic of measures introduced by the Government.

A WAR ON NIHILISTS.

Paris, November 25.—Numerous warrants have been issued for the simultaneous search of the houses of Russian refugees. The report is current that the authorities are preparing for the general expulsion of militant nihilists.

SOCIALISTS DISPERSED.

Berlin, November 25.—A street demonstration of socialists was held at Bochum today. The police were called upon to disperse the crowds, and in the melee several persons were injured. The police captured a red flag.

HOW THE CZAR RULES HIS SUBJECTS.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 22.—Advices from Moscow and Warsaw concur with reports in this city that simultaneous movements are being made in all the great centres of Russian rule toward intensifying the official despotism which characterizes the administration of this barbaric country. The police, under direct orders from St. Petersburg, have revived corporeal punishment upon a larger scale than has ever been ventured on since the Czar Nicholas. Polish women are being flogged for making secret preparations for emigration to Brazil, and a Roman Catholic priest at Warsaw was given sixty lashes for holding an open air service for his parishioners after the police had closed his church.

Wholesale arbitrary transportation to Siberia is going on everywhere without even the pretense of trials, and the most relentless persecution of the people by the police that has taken place in a long time is going on everywhere. An edict of the Ecclesiastical Board proposes, as the speediest means of suppressing Roman Catholic activity in making converts from the Greek church, to concentrate all the monks in the empire in two houses and all the nuns in one, and to confiscate the convents for the use of the Ministry of War.

ANTI-JEWISH EDICTS.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 24.—The Government has forbidden the newspapers to publish a petition drawn up by the Jews asking that they be placed on civil equality with other classes in Russia. Orders have been given that no Government work shall be given to the Jews outside of the territorial limits assigned to them.

FATAL FLOODS IN AUSTRIA-HUNGARY.

Carlsbad, Nov. 24.—The Topl river has overflowed its banks. Great damage is being done. At Tschauch a mine was flooded and twenty men perished. For the last three days a hurricane has been reported throughout Austria, with avalanches and floods in the mountain regions.

VERY TALL AND VERY RICH.

Paris, November 26.—Among the visitors of Madame Carnot at the Elysee Palace during the last week have been the Crown Prince and Crown Princess of Denmark. The latter is famous for being the tallest and wealthiest princess in Europe. Her stature is absolutely gigantic, being over six feet two, and so far as her fortune is concerned she inherited $15,000,000 from her maternal grandfather, Prince Frederick of the Netherlands, besides the entire wealth of her father, the late King Charles of Sweden.

She is extremely fond of Paris, a fact which is perhaps attributable to the existence of French blood in her veins, her father's father having been the famous French General Bernadotte, who was adopted as heir to the Swedish throne by the childless King Charles XIII in 1802.

THE NICARAGUA CANAL.

New York, November 26.—The Post's Nicaragua correspondence of November 10th says: Harbor improvement work is progressing rapidly. Five of the large Slavin dredges have arrived. A fifteen-foot channel has been made from the end of the railway wharf to the bar at the entrance of the lagoon, and the dredge is now engaged in extending this channel along the side of the breakwater to meet that depth of water outside. Large quantities of stores and materials have been accumulated. The health of the workmen is remarkably good. The whole enterprise gives evidence of the most careful foresight and supervision.

THE GERMAN BUDGET.

Berlin, November 26.—The German budget for the coming fiscal year makes the revenue and expenditures balance at 1,130,645,885 marks. The expenditures are divided as follows: Permanent expenditures, 941,135,767 marks; non-recurring ordinary, 90,720,253; non-recurring extraordinary, 98,789,869. For the army 25,754,707 marks more is required than in 1890, the greater portion being needed for the execution of the military law regarding an increase of its effective strength. For the navy three iron-clads, one cruiser, one dispatch boat and eight torpedo boats are to be constructed in 1891.

A CHIEF MARCHING AGAINST THE MAHDI—CANNIBALISM.

London, November 26.—A dispatch from Suakin says that Chief Senousi is marching against the Mahdi with a large and well-armed force and that the Mahdi, owing to numerous desertions, is in no condition to meet the enemy.

In Khartoum and vicinity all food has been seized for the support of the Mahdi's followers, and the inhabitants are perishing.

An Arab living ... have killed one of his slaves, the latter is said to ing without food, and lived with his household for several days on the body.

FRANCE'S DEBT THE LARGEST OF ANY NATION IN THE WORLD.

Paris, Nov. 27.—Pelletin presented before the Budget Committee a report on the financial situation of France, showing the estimated debt of the country to be 30,300,313,591 francs nominal capital and 22,324,043,609 francs actual capital. The nominal rate of interest is 3.48 per cent and the actual rate 4.62 per cent.

'This,' continues the report, 'is the largest public debt in the world, but the French credit is sufficiently solid to allow French stock to be reckoned as 3 per cents.'

The weekly statement of the Bank of France shows an increase in gold of 275,000 francs and a decrease in silver of 1,350,000 francs.

A BIG STORM IN EUROPE.

London, November 27.—Severe frost and heavy snow prevail throughout Europe. In Paris the snow is several inches deep. Many railroad lines in Austria and Southern Russia have partially suspended operations because of snow blockades. There is a heavy snowstorm in the English channel, and a large steamer is ashore at Folkestone.

Carlsbad, November 22.—Damage by floods is enormous. Hundreds of sheep-keepers are ruined. Hundreds of thousands of dollars will be required for public repairs alone. A terrific storm is raging on the Black Sea.

A FRENCH BANK FAILS.

Paris, November 27.—The Commercial Tribunal has ordered the Banque d'Etat to go into liquidation. Deputy Raynaud, managing director, has absconded, and it is reported committed suicide. He is reported to have gambled heavily in stocks and offered 20 per cent interest.

FORCING CONVERSIONS.

St. Petersburg, November 27.—A ukase has been issued ordering that no Hebrew shall henceforth be permitted to enter the Greek Church unless his wife, children, brothers and parents do the same. The object is to put a stop to the practice by the Hebrews of sacrificing one member of their family to the Russian Church, thus securing a right to earn a livelihood for all. According to the new edict, unless all the family become Christians they may starve together. As might be expected, the conversions to Christianity are now frequent. The Hebrews are, however, prevented from joining either the Roman Catholic or Protestant communions.

THE BELGIAN FRANCHISE.

Brussels, November 27.—Janson, a Radical member, to-day introduced a bill providing for the extension of the franchise. This action was a complete surprise. The Radicals are greatly elated, and workmen, who intended to inaugurate a general strike as a part of the universal suffrage movement, decided to remain at work. The streets to-night are thronged with people and the rejoicing is general. Its discussion is favored by the Government.

A CHINESE DIVORCE.

New Haven, November 21.—William L. Bennett, a commissioner of the Superior Court appointed to hear the evidence in the suit brought by Mrs Elizabeth M. Lee for absolute divorce from her husband, Yan Phou Lee, made his report to Judge Fenn this morning.

The suit was brought on the ground of adultery committed by Lee in San Francisco and Portland, Or., in 1889. This the commissioner found true and recommended that a divorce be granted. Judge Fenn rendered a decision to that effect.

Neither of the parties to the suit appeared in court. Mrs. Lee, however, through her counsel asked that she might assume her maiden name and have the custody of the two minor children, one 2 years old and the other about a year old. Both of these requests were granted, and Mrs. Lee will in the future be known as Miss Elizabeth M. Jerome.

The marriage of Miss Jerome and Yan Phou Lee occured soon after the latter's graduation from Yale University, in the summer of 1887, and created a sensation in society here, where Miss Jerome had been an acknowledged leader.
